

If I choose to pay for my Satellite Radio, the FCC should have no business acting in the usual PAC way to promote the NAB & their interests. Since when is Traffic Information the property of the local radio broadcasters?